

Table of Contents

Preface ix

The Life & Diary of David Brainerd

Preface to the Original Edition 3

Part I 11

From his birth, to the time when he began to study for the ministry.

Part II 31

From about the time that he first began to devote himself more especially to the study of divinity, till he was examined and licensed to preach by the Association of Ministers belonging to the eastern district of the county of Fairfield, in Connecticut.

Part III. 49

From the time of his being licensed to preach by the Association, till he was examined in New York, by the correspondents (or commissioners) of the Society in Scotland for Propagating Christian Knowledge, and approved and appointed as their missionary to the Indians.

Part IV 63

From the time of his examination by the correspondents of the Society for Propagating Christian Knowledge, and being appointed their missionary, to his first entrance on the business of his mission among the Indians at Kaunaumeeek.

Part V 77

From his beginning to instruct the Indians at Kaunaumeeek, to his ordination.

Part VI 125

From his ordination, till he first began to preach to the Indians at Crossweeksung, among whom he had his most remarkable success.

Part VII 167

From his beginning to preach to the Indians at Crossweeksung, till he returned from his last journey to Susquehannah, ill with the consumption whereof he died.

Part VIII 219

After his return from his last journey to Susquehannah, until his death.

Mr. Brainerd's Journal, In Two Parts

The Rise and Progress of a Remarkable Work of Grace

Advertisement 265

In the Original Edition of the Journal

Preface 267

To the Original Edition of the Journal

Part I 271

From AD 1745 June 19th to November 4th, at Crossweeksung and Forks of Delaware.

Part II 317

From AD 1745, November 24th, to June 19th 1746, at Crossweeksung and Forks of Delaware.