

Contents

Introduction 1
K. Scott Oliphint and Lane G. Tipton

Part 1: Reformed Apologetics: Exegetical Considerations

1. Epistemological Reflections on 1 Corinthians 2:6–16 13
Richard B. Gaffin Jr.
2. Resurrection, Proof, and Presuppositionalism:
Acts 17:30–31 41
Lane G. Tipton
3. The Irrationality of Unbelief: An Exegetical Study 59
K. Scott Oliphint
4. The Case for Calvinistic Hermeneutics 74
Moisés Silva
5. Paul’s Christological Interpretation of Creation and Presuppositional Apologetics 95
Lane G. Tipton

Part 2: Reformed Apologetics: Theological Foundations

6. Divine Aseity and Apologetics 115
John M. Frame

7. Consistently Reformed: The Inheritance and Legacy of Van Til's Apologetic 131
Michael S. Horton
8. A Confessional Apologetic 149
Thom E. Notaro
9. Theologia Naturalis: A Reformed Tradition 168
Jeffrey K. Jue
10. The Eschatological Implications of Genesis 2:15 for Apologetics 190
William D. Dennison

Part 3: Reformed Apologetics: Methodological Implications

11. The Old-New Reformed Epistemology 207
K. Scott Oliphint
12. The Fate of Apologetics in an Age of Normal Nihilism 220
Michael W. Payne
13. Turn! Turn! Turn! Reformed Apologetics and the Cultural Dimension 242
William Edgar
14. Van Til and Transcendental Argument 258
Don Collett

Appendix: Cornelius Van Til and the Reformation of Christian Apologetics 279
K. Scott Oliphint

- Bibliography 305
- Contributors 319
- Index of Scripture 321
- Index of Subjects and Names 327