

Table of Contents

Preface to the Revised and Expanded Edition

Introduction: The Whole Gospel to the Whole Person Wholly by Grace by Whole People: Our Task in Evangelism

Part One: The Whole Gospel: Content of Our Message

1. Personal Witness as Planting and Watering
 - What Is Witnessing?
 - The Difference Between the Gospel and Our Testimony
 - Distinguishing Our Role from God's
2. The Gospel Reduced
 - Packaging the Gospel
 - Whole Gospel/Shrunken Gospel
 - Message-Centered/Method-Centered
 - God-Centered/Me-Centered
 - Is the Gospel Really Being Compromised?
 - Truth: The Measuring Stick of Evangelism
3. The Gospel Recovered
 - Gospel Grammar: The Five Primary Points of the Gospel
 - Gospel Telling: "Come Home" Diagram

Part Two: To the Whole Person: Conversion of the Total Person

4. Professors but Not Possessors
 - Mere Conversion
 - A Partial Response to the Gospel
5. The Whole Gospel to the Mind
 - All Head Knowledge
 - Little Head Knowledge
 - The Balance: Thinking God's Thoughts, Not Judging God's Ways
6. The Whole Gospel to the Emotions
 - Only Emotional Reaction
 - No Emotional Reaction
 - The Balance: Emotions Led by Truth
7. The Whole Gospel to the Will
 - The Balance: God Moving Sinners Through Persuasion
 - The Labeling Fallacy
 - Reaching the Whole Person

Part Three: Wholly by Grace: The Foundation for Evangelism

8. Grace Is Only for the Powerless
 - Salvation Is Impossible for Nice People
 - Three Myths That Obscure Grace
 - Unable yet Responsible

9. God Is Grace-Full

- Grace Makes Salvation Possible
- Our Re-creating God

10. Sovereign, Saving Grace

- Grace Discriminates
- Not Free Will but a Freed Will
- Because It Pleases Him

11. Worship

- Motivation for Evangelism: Encountering a Macro-God
- Worship: The Passion for and the Purpose of Evangelism
- Real Converts Really Worship
- God-Centered Evangelists Worship

Part Four: Offered by Whole People: Character and Communication in Witnessing

12. Ordinary Christians Can Witness

- Pluralism and the New Definition of Tolerance
- Christ, the Only Way to God
- Reasoning with People
- Speaking to the Conscience
- Our Fears
- Wholeness in Attitudes and Motivation
- Prayer and the Spirit

13. How to Communicate Personally

- No Perfect Methods, but Help for Starting
- Different People, Different Places
- Getting Started
- Conversation Turners
- Conversation with a Direction
- The Uninterested
- Using a Summary of the Gospel
- Bloom Where You Are Planted
- Practical Effects of Grace-Centered Evangelism
- Our Goal: Disciples
- Plans to Obey

Appendixes

Appendix A: Training Materials for Learning God-Centered Evangelism

- The Kind of Person God Uses in Evangelism
- Preparing Your Testimony
- Learning to Say What You Mean
- Being a Good Listener
- How to Ask Good Questions
- Friendship Evangelism
- Language Barriers
- Four Role Plays for Learning to Witness
- Evaluating the Content of a Gospel Presentation

Questions Non-Christian Ask
Guidelines for Organizing Contact Evangelism
Spiritual Interest Questionnaire
Schedule for a God-Centered Evangelism Training Seminar Weekend
Appendix B: Learning the Gospel Diagram "Come Home"
Procedures for Learning the "Come Home" Gospel Diagram
Come Home: Overview for Memorization
"Come Home: Simplified Version"
Telling the Gospel Through Stories
God's Test for Everyone: Measure Yourself by God's Law
Do You Dare Look Inside Yourself?
Appendix C: Study Guide: Twelve Sessions for Individuals or Groups
Appendix D: Doctrine Is Not an Obscene Word

Notes

Scripture Index

Permissions